TATTING IN THE MODERN MODE

THE ART of tatting, centuries old, is assuming a role of major importance in modern handicrafts. The desire for dainty lacelike designs and the return of fashion to decorative finishes for apparel and for the home is leading many women to take up this fascinating art.

A tatting shuttle filled with thread can conveniently be carried about so that as one sits and chats or spends a quiet evening at home, one can create lovely designs.

Edgings ★ Insertions ★ Medallions

A WEALTH of beautiful designs is offered here, suitable for many varied uses. When you have tatted, and completed those of your first choice, you undoubtedly will be lured on to create many more ideas. Gifts of tatted articles always bring delight to the recipients.

The simplest of motifs may be joined together to form exquisite doilies, centerpieces, luncheon cloths, chair sets, etc. By a little ingenuity the design can be worked into your own creation.

This book also contains an assortment of smart motifs for bedspreads and tablecloths, each motif also being adaptable to a great many different articles.

Remember always that beautiful handwork is entitled to the finest quality threads such as J. & P. Coats and Clark's "Anchor."

Repeat from * until 3 bars are made for each corner. Then weave over only 3 bars at one time, picking up 1 bar, passing over next bar, and picking up last bar; on next row pick up the bar which was passed over in previous row and pass over the bars which were picked up. Alternate these 2 rows until bar is completely covered. Fasten off. Weave over the remaining bars in same way, thus completing 1 motif.

Make motifs for size of article desired, joining the 5th p of 6-p loop and the 2nd p of next 6-p loop to corresponding p's of previous motif.

Four Smart Motifs

THAT COST LESS THAN 3c EACH

We've figured out the cost of each crocheted motif —now put on your thinking cap and decide what to do with them. Do you want a large cloth? A tea cloth? What about using motifs for luncheon mats? Wouldn't a runner to match be stunning for buffet or serving table? Use them in the corner of napkins, or as "tidies" for chairs. Figure out how many motifs you'll need — then you'll know how much it will cost you before you start.
